

The Blood Covenant (God's Amazing Commitment to You)

Matthew 26:26-28

Sunday, September 14, 2014

The Old Testament, or Old Covenant.

In the New Covenant, _____ is the outward sign of your inward commitment.

The New Covenant, or New Testament.

The word "Covenant" means a binding agreement, a solemn, binding arrangement between two parties and entails a variety of responsibilities, benefits and penalties (preceptaustion.org).

A covenant is applied to marriage.

Proverbs 2:17

Jeremiah 31:31-34

Jeremiah 34:18-19

I Samuel 18:3

Why the blood? Because blood represents _____.

Leviticus 17:11

Hebrews 9:23; 10:4

I. The _____ of the Blood Covenant

The Steps in a Blood Covenant

1. The shedding of _____.

Genesis 3:21

2. The exchange of _____ or _____.

Isaiah 61:10

I Samuel 18:3-4

3. The exchange of _____.

4. The blood would _____.
5. The exchange of _____.
6. There were _____ to the terms of the covenants.

Galatians 3:13

7. A _____ was made.
8. A memorial _____ was eaten.

Proverbs 18:24

“Loving-kindness”

9. A _____ was established.

Genesis 21:31-32

II. The _____ of the Blood Covenant to Jesus Christ

Now, how does this apply to Jesus Christ and our relationship with Him?

1. Jesus shed His own blood to offer this _____ with us.

John 1:29

I Peter 1:19

2. Jesus _____ our robe of unrighteousness for His robe of righteousness.

Isaiah 64:6

Job 29:14

3. Jesus gave us His _____ at salvation.

John 14:13

Philippians 2:9-11

4. Jesus gave us supernatural _____.

Ephesians 6:11

5. Jesus blood was both _____ and _____.

When you receive Jesus, His _____ becomes yours.

I John 1:7

6. All of the unseen world _____ the covenant.

Colossians 2:14

7. Jesus has _____.

John 20:27

8. Jesus invites us to a _____.

John 3:16-18

III. The Implications of the Blood Covenant

1. The implications for those who are _____.

John 15:14

a) Eternal _____

b) _____ of Salvation

c) _____

d) _____

Philippians 4:19, John 10:28-29, Hebrews 13:5, John 14:1-3, Romans 8:17

2. The implications in _____.

The key is _____ to God and _____ your marriage vows.

If you keep your end of the covenant, you will find _____, protection, peace, happiness, joy, power, love, affirmation, and provision for your needs.

However, if you are saved and you do not keep your end of the covenant through daily obedience to God, you have taken yourself out of the circle of _____.

